PREVIOUS MEETING By Ron Rayevich

Tanya Dottellis did a great job as a late replacement for the scheduled speaker. Tanya, who moved to Sarasota from Washington, DC, is a retired attorney who is now involved with the development of the new Carlisle Inn and Conference Center on the NE corner of Bahia Vista and Beneva Road. The hotel and conference center is to open in March, 2018 and will be the seventh hotel developed by the Ohio based developer. As the Phase II of the expanded Legacy Trail will adjoin the hotel on the old Seaboard Airline RR right-of-way, Tanya became involved with the Friends of the Legacy Trail to help support the expansion of this popular biking and running trail (which currently runs from Clark Road south to downtown Venice). Phase II would follow the rail line from Clark Road north to Payne Park in downtown Sarasota. Tanya is trying to bring private funds to this Sarasota County project, in which the county has agreed to purchase the right-of-way and other funds would be raised to develop the trail including bridges over the major east-west roads. Bike and running trails are now major assets for cities appealing to healthy, active residents.

JIM HENRY'S ADVICE ON LIVING

People who wish to have a healthy morning start should drink Irish Coffee. It has all four essential food groups: alcohol, caffeine, sugar, and fat.

Don't worry about temptation. As you grow older, it will avoid you.
