PREVIOUS VIRTUAL MEETING (JUNE 3) BY JIM HENRY

Dr. Deri Ronis, discussed with us the importance of mediation and the part it can play in peace resolution, whether it is a simple disagreement between siblings, parent-child issues, conflicts between organizations and/or nations. In other words, in everyday human life. Deri was selected to develop a program and facilitate a course in peace and conflict resolution at the Rotary International Peace Center at Uppsala University this past March, but her flight was cancelled the day before her departure, due to the corona virus. Her program has been put on hold, but will most likely be activated sometime in the future.

Deri is currently an ESOL Adjunct Professor in Linguistics, teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages with many talented immigrants at the Suncoast Technical College. One of the major issues she addresses in all of her classes is how the use of words can be complimentary or upsetting. This is particularly true when trying to resolve disagreements.

When companies are experiencing change, tempers among owners, officers, managers, and employees often flare. Deri is often asked to step in and conduct mediation seminars, often using actual disagreements as examples on how to arrive at some resolution without creating enemies, bullying, or insulting others.

JOCELYN PARKER, WINNER OF THE 6960 4 WAY TEST ESSAY CONTEST

Those of us lucky enough to ZOOM in to this meeting were privileged to hear Jocelyn, a Booker Middle School Interact member, read her winning essay, which presented an example of how she applied Rotary's 4 Way Test in her desire to resolve a bullying situation at school. District Governor Rich Kirschner was zooming with us and advised Jocelyn that she would be receiving a check for $500 from District 6960, and President Jeff followed by announcing that Jocelyn would be receiving $100 from the Rotary Club of Sarasota.

The complete essay is on page three of the April 1, 2020 SMILE and can be reached at this link
